Dear Jim:

Fat Coyne has now completed his activities with the working group which I established to consult with me on the organization and activities of the Agency and the intelligence community. I want you to know I appreciate your cooperation in making him available to participate in this work and that he made a very thoughtful and valuable contribution.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) JOHN A. MCCONE

Dear Pat:

Thank you very much for pitching in and helping with my deliberations on the organization and activities of the Agency and the intelligence community. I appreciate very much your helpful and valuable suggestions and comments and all of the time you put in with the working group on top of your regular job.

I look forward to a long and pleasant association.

With very best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) JOHN A. McCONE
